Good morning, CBGS students and families!

I hope everyone has been able to avoid damages resulting from Hurricane Ian. While the storm helps supply current information to study in class, our hearts go out to all those suffering in the wake of its devastation.

Here are a few notes for you as we near the end of the first quarter:

- If you were not able to make it to Back to School Night, here is a video summarizing my discussion.
- The last day of the first quarter is Thursday, 10/20. Students, make sure to communicate with your teachers if you have incomplete or missing assignments.
- CBGS will be closed on Friday, 10/21.
- RCC is closing at 12pm today, 10/3, due to weather related circumstances. The RCC College Transfer Fair scheduled for this evening at RCC-Glenns will be rescheduled.
- Seniors - If you plan to apply for federal assistance for college, make sure you know FAFSA and state deadlines. Reach out to your school counselor or RCC Navigator if you have questions.

Don't forget to follow us on Facebook and Instagram to stay up to date on CBGS!
